

From the very start of the Black Jew Dialogues program on our campus, Larry and Ron had the attention of the audience. The sketches were done with poignant humor, causing you to laugh and think at the same time. As much as I enjoyed the sketches the real satisfaction, as the Student Life Director for our campus, was the dialogue that happened following the sketches and continued in to the classrooms. The humorous sketches provided a great backdrop for discussion. The students sensed the heart of Ron and Larry and felt welcome to ask questions and make comments in an open and respectful manner.

I highly recommend the Black Jew Dialogues for a variety of events – more than educational enough for any learning environment and more than entertaining enough to make you laugh.

Sincerely,
