

STATE UNIVERSITY OF NEW YORK MARITIME COLLEGE

The Black-Jew Dialogues
Larry Jay Tish
33 Aberdeen Ave
Cambridge, MA 02138

February 02, 2012

The Black- Jew Dialogues visited SUNY Maritime College in the Fall of 2011. The student body picked them as their first choice after seeing them at APCA the semester prior. They were our opening act for the year and the response was tremendous!

An event that can prove itself to not only be entertaining but thought provoking is so rare and needed, especially at an institution like SUNY Maritime. Our cadets live a regimented lifestyle so to bring in fun and unexpected activities is a priority. In addition, these students are preparing for a global industry and to be able to weave in events that discuss diversity in vital.

The Black-Jew Dialogues message of cultural understanding helps support the principles of unit cohesion, team work, and being mission focused and I look forward to working with them again in the near future! I would highly recommend them to perform at any institution.

Regards,

A handwritten signature in cursive script, appearing to read "Arianne Romeo".

Arianne Romeo
Director of Student Activities & Orientation
SUNY Maritime College