To Whom It May Concern:

It is my pleasure to write this letter of highest recommendation for the Black Jew Dialogues. We have had the program on campus twice during my time here, and most recently in November 2012.

The Black Jew Dialogues is an artistic, humorous, yet thought-provoking program. Our students respond well to Larry and Ron's approach to delivering such an important message. They are entertained and laugh throughout, but more importantly, it causes them to think. We do Q&A sessions after every program such as this and I am always impressed with how long it lasts and the depth of the discussion that ensues after the Black Jew Dialogues program. It is clear that their message is received and it has caused students to reflect.

Larry and Ron are two of the nicest, professional, and easy to work with performers I have worked with. They work hard before the show to make sure we have all the information and materials needed to make the show a success. They are just as invested in the program as the organization bringing them in. On site they were wonderful in working with the student leaders from the programming board. They are flexible and can work in almost any space or environment. Though both of our shows have seen good attendance, I know they would provide a spectacular experience regardless of audience size.

I can't say enough good things about the quality of the Black Jew Dialogues program and of its performers Larry and Ron. I would be happy to speak to any colleagues looking for a reference for the program.

Sincerely,
